

8X8* Create!

A FOSL Community Art Auction Supporting the Shepherdstown Public Library Entry Form

Artists of all ages and skill levels are invited to get creative! Support the Friends of Shepherdstown Library by creating a work of art to donate for our online auction. All auction sales will benefit the library.

To participate in this fun winter project:

- Create an 8"x8" work of art that is ready for display. *Larger works of art are welcome too!
- Medium of your choice: painting, drawing, photography, collage, multimedia, stained glass, fiber art, etc.
- Artwork must be original and reflect one of these themes:
 - Libraries or Books
 - Nature

Multiple submissions are welcome.

Drop off your artwork and entry form at the Shepherdstown Public Library by February 6th. Please place your artwork and entry form in a protective bag. Library Hours: 10-5 M-Th, 10-4 Fr-Sat. Your art will be photographed and posted to our auction website.

- Primed 8"x8" canvases are available at no charge at the library if you would like one.
- Auction dates: February 19-27
- Our Bidding Owl auction website will be linked to the FOSL webpage and library webpage.

All proceeds raised through the art auction will support the Shepherdstown Public Library. Any artwork without bids will be returned to the artist.

Please contact Jen Bean at FOSLauction@gmail.com with any questions.

(Cut here and return form with your art to the Shepherdstown Library by February 6th)

Please PRINT:

Name _____

Address _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

_____ I understand that my artwork will be auctioned to raise funds for FOSL and that my artwork will only be returned to me if it is not sold. Suggested minimum bid for my art: $ _____

Artwork Title _____

Medium _____ Theme: Libraries/Books _____ Nature _____